LOW-INCOME PROGRAMS

The Company, as part of its obligations as an Eligible Telecommunications Carrier, offers two (2) low-income assistance programs. This program, Lifeline Assistance, is offered under the terms and conditions provided below:

A. Lifeline Assistance

1. General

Lifeline Assistance is a retail service offering available to qualifying lowincome subscribers, as provided for below. Lifeline Assistance enables eligible subscribers to pay reduced charges for the following package of services: voice-grade access to the public switched network; voice grade access to the public switched network or its functional equivalent; minutes of use for local service provided at no additional charge to end users; access to the emergency services provided by local government or other public safety organizations, such as 911 and enhanced 911, to the extent the local government in an eligible carrier's service area has implemented 911 or enhanced 911 systems; and toll limitation services to qualifying low-income consumers.

2. Regulations

Issued June 30, 2012

- a) Unless other eligibility requirements are established by the Commission, Lifeline Assistance is available to all subscribers who participate in one of the following programs: Medicaid; Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), formerly known as food stamps; Supplemental Security Income (SSI); Federal Public Housing Assistance; Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP); National School Lunch Program's free lunch program; Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), or whose household income is below 135% of the Federal Poverty Guidelines for a household of that size.
- b) Each subscriber to Lifeline Assistance must certify in writing to the Company, under penalty of perjury, that she/he receives benefits under a program outlined in sub-paragraph (b) (1), above, and must, on that same document, agree to notify the Company if she/he ceases to participate in the program. The certification form shall conform to the requirements described herein, and shall be made available upon request to any subscriber. The Company shall retain all such subscriber certifications in order to furnish proof of subscriber eligibility as may be required from time to time by Universal Service administrators.

Issued by authority of an Order of the Public Service Commission of West Virginia in Case No. 12-0918-T-T dated July 30, 2012, effective August 1, 2012.

- d) A subscriber may elect at the time of subscription or later to Lifeline Assistance to receive toll limitation as part of Lifeline Assistance. "Toll limitation" is a service that allows a subscriber to elect not to allow the completion of outgoing toll calls from the subscriber's residence.
- e) Lifeline Assistance will not be disconnected for non-payment of toll charges, unless the Company first obtains a waiver from the Commission by demonstrating to the Commission that the Company would otherwise incur substantial costs, that the Company offers toll limitation without charge, and that telephone subscribership among low-income consumers. For purposes of this paragraph, a "low-income consumer" is one with an income below the poverty level for a family of four residing in West Virginia. The Company shall follow all applicable notice provisions as established, from time to time, by the Commission, as part of using a waiver, if granted. The Company may apply for waivers as necessary.
- f) The Company may not collect a service deposit in order to initiate Lifeline Assistance if the qualifying low-income subscriber voluntarily elects toll limitation from the Company.
- Lifeline Assistance provides a Federal credit of $9.25 on the subscriber's monthly service bill.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

Board of Directors

Armstrong Telephone Company – West Virginia, Inc.

Report on Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Armstrong Telephone Company – West Virginia, Inc. (Company), which comprise the balance sheets as of September 30, 2013 and 2012, and the related statements of operations, stockholder's equity, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Armstrong Telephone Company – West Virginia, Inc. as of September 30, 2013 and 2012, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.
